

Employment Opportunities

The High Desert Chapter of the American Red Cross employs staff members to contribute managerial and specialist expertise, research capability, continuity and support to the delivery of Red Cross services to our clients through volunteers. The Chapter is committed to a work environment in which relationships are characterized by dignity, courtesy, respect, and equitable treatment, and in which there are opportunities for participation, challenge, broadening experiences, and advancement.

All employment is based on an affirmative action policy that does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, creed, gender, age, sexual orientation, disability, national origin, citizenship or marital status. Every staff member employed in Red Cross shall be selected under fair employment procedures that provide equal employment opportunities to all people.

All persons selected for employment are required to undergo a background check, sign an American Red Cross Code of Conduct Certification and Disclosure, Confidential Information and Intellectual Property Agreement, an Agreement and Acknowledgement of Receipt of Employee Handbook and subscribe to the mission and principles of the Red Cross.

Available positions are posted in a variety of ways, including but not limited to, area newspapers, this web site, college and university employment offices, and internal posting.
